

Connected in a Divided World

What keeps us together as a society, especially in America where diverse communities live, work, and play together side-by-side?

Venerable Thubten Chodron speaks on the shared values and ordinary virtues that we often take for granted in our everyday lives, which keep us alive and connected to each other.

Venerable Thubten Chodron
Abbess, Sravasti Abbey

Date:

Tuesday, April 3rd, 2018

Time:

6:30 pm to 8:00pm

Where:

North Idaho College, Edminster Student Union Building
Lake Coeur D'Alene Room, 495 College Drive, Coeur d'Alene, ID

Organized by:

NIC Diversity Events and CDA Dharma Friends

Event URL:

<https://www.nic.edu/>

For further information call Chris at 208-667-3813 or Susan at 208-512-1524

This event is free and open to the public; donations to the Abbey are welcome